

Painting the town red: Allegra Hicks and Roberto Mottola

Fashion legend Valentino Garavani

Fantastic four: Tim and Malin Jefferies with Stephen and Assia Webster

COME BACK TO MY PAD

The garden of Mayfair's Berkeley Square played host once again to the PAD London Art Fair, which attracts some of the world's most prestigious galleries and collectors. The VIP opening night was a glittering affair, with the 2,000 guests, including Crown Princess Marie-Chantal of Greece, Italian fashion designer Valentino and celebrity make-up artist Mary Greenwell, sipping Ruinart champagne and grazing on canapés including mini foie gras sandwiches as they perused the stands of the 62 exhibitors.